Instructions

Each year our crew asks adults to assist us in creating an exciting, balanced program of activities. We would appreciate knowing in which areas below you might be willing to help us. You are not signing up to be a leader of our crew, but are making us aware of special skills, interests and resources that you would be willing to share with us as we attempt to create a fun, meaningful and diverse Venturing program. Your assistance will help us better match resources available with the activities in which we have interest and improve resource utilization while reducing unnecessary costs.
